FROM BRIBERY TRIAL

Como, Italy, June 14.—Although the police authorities have sent cut a request to the authorities at the various ports to watch for a man abswering the description of Porter Charlton, the search of Lake Como, where the body of Charlton's wife was found in a trunk a few days ago, has not been abandoned. Nothing has been discovered today, however, to give the slightest clue to the whereabouts of the missing man or to strengthen the theory that he also was murdered.

ATTEMPT TO BETTER HIS OWN WORLD'S AEROPLANE RECORD. Brookins Met Strong Cross Current at Height of 2.083 Feet.

Indianapolis, June 14.—Against a stiff wind. Walter Brookins of Dayton, O., Briving a Wright biplane, attempted fate today at the Indianapolis speed-way to better his own world's aeruplane record for altitude, which he set yesterday at 4.384 1-2 feet. Making a few wide circles, he reached the height of 1.700 feet in seven minutes. Continuing his upward ascent, he soared to 2.083 feet in 12.45. At this height Brookins met a strong cross current and with a short turn he began a swift descent to within 200 feet of the earth. He alighted after manoeuvring over the automobile course. Untoward weather conditions curtailed the day's programme.

THREE WEEKS' OLD BABY BOY

Heights School Teacher. Stamford, Conn., June 14.—A baby boy between two and three weeks old was found in the bushes near the Soldiers home at Noroton Heights late today by Mies Rourke, a school teacher, who took the child to the home of Medical Examiner S. House. The latter placed the infant in the children's home at Darien. The child is thought to be of foreign parentage and was nearly dressed. It must have been lying in the bushes for some hours unseen, because it was hungry and was badly bitten by insects. At the home it is eald that the child may die, New York, June 14.—Speaking tonight of his proposed exhibition flight for New Yorkers, Hamilton said: "Fill

RESULT OF DECISION OF CON-NECTICUT SUPREME COURT.

THE NEW HARTFORD CASE

Superior Court the Court of Last Resort in the Matter of License Ques tion-Decision Yesterday.

New Haven, June 14.—The supreme court by a decision handed down here today declared that the superior court was the court of last resort in the matter of the license question in New Hartford. At the time of the voting on the license question on October 4, 1909, it was contended that but four days' notice had been given, whereas five days was required by law. The selectmen of the town carried the question to the superior court, and Judge George W. Wheeler decided that the proper notice had not been given and that the vote was not legal, as the statutes had not been complied with. The matter was then taken to the supreme court, who today decided with. The matter was then taken to the supreme court, who today decided that the case could not properly be brought to the supreme court accord-ing to the acts of 1909, as the superior court was the court of last resort. The town of New Hartford will remain dry, though the vote taken last October was in favor of license.

PLAYS ABOUT SKYSCRAPERS

Dodging In and Out, Like a Wasp-Strikes Court House Roof-Dirigible Finally Disabled.

New York, June 14.—Fred L. Owens, a youthful seronaut, of Belleville, N. J., gave Manhattan a new thrill today by suddenly appearing in a dirigible balloon in the lower part of the city. He had flown nine miles from Belleville and crossed the Hudson without mishap, but on reaching the city hall district his troubles began.

Drifted Helpless Over East River. Over-zealous volunteers standing on the roof of the courthouse seized his drag rope, causing the craft to veer and strike the building, twisting the framework and putting the propellar out of commission. Thus helpless the wind caught the balloon and bore it erratically over the East rives, where it landed among a group of trees and trolley wires. Firemen rescued Owens uninjured.

Cheering Crowds Showered With Sand. Still discussing Hamilton's achievement of yesterday, lower New York gazed upwasd and cheered frantically as Owens cut capers and dedged like a wasp among the skyscrapers. Those who happened to be directly under him were showered with and as he threw overboard ballast, but everybody took it good naturedly.

New York, June 14.-Leon Gupen well known as an artist and illustrator, shot himself through the head in his studio here today and was found dead shot himself through the head in his studio here today and was found dead on the floor, revolver by his side. H. C. Merrill, a close friend, explained the tragedy tonight, saying that Gupon had been engaged to Miss Agnes Foster, daughter of a Boston banker, but had broken the engagement because of ill health. He suffered with heart trouble and had been told by physicians that he might die at any time. Warned by an hysterical letter, Merrill hastened to the studio this afternoon, hoping that he would be in time to dissuade Gupon from doing anything rash. But when he threw open the studio door he saw it was too late. Gupon was dead, and on a table near the body was a large envelope containing his last will and testament. It has not been read.

New York, June 14.—Before killing himself the young ertist sent to his former flancee in Boston a check for $7,212. "All the pennies I had saved" as he expressed it in a letter to his friend Merrill. In his letter to Merrill he wrote:

"Since I came back to New York for no apparent reason my heart went all to pleeces again. I told you it was my happy life, yet I cannot live without her. I have fought manfully, but I am beaten. So there is but one honerable path open to me, and I shall calmly step into it because my conscience is clear."

When a heavy envelope on a table near the body was opened the artist's will, written in his own hand, was found. It said in part:

"This is my last will.

"I am an orphan and have no bleed relatives. After my death do not look for my money, as I have already disposed of it.

During its session today the senate devoted its attention between the public land withdrawal bill and Sénator Owens' motion discharging the committee on privileges and elections from the further consideration of the resolution providing for the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people. Action was taken upon neither of these measures.

The session of the house was again devoted to political speeches under the guise of debate upon the deficiency bill. Representative Randall of Texas caused a sensation by moving that the house recall from the committee on the judiciary a bill to prohibit senators, representatives and judges from accepting gifts, compensation, etc. from railroad telegraph and other similar corporations, on the ground that ilar corporations, on the ground that Representative Parker of New Jersey, chairman, and other members of the committee were accepting such gifts, and by so doing were disqualified from action on such a committee. Mr. Ran-dall seeking action on his motion as privileged, met opposition, and the speaker sustained a point of order which prevented action upon it. This action was upheld by the house, 121

Boston, June 14.-No effort made to have "Big Bill" Keliher testify in his own behalf when the trial ended today, in which he is charged with aiding George W. Coleman in defraudsiding George W. Coleman in defrauding the National City bank of Cambridge of $302,000. The buriy friend of the defaulting bookkeeper sat stoically beside als attorneys while half a dozen witnesses, including a woman friend from New Tork, testified regarding Coleman's relations with Keliher. Yet even Keilher was forced to smile when his lawyers disconcerted the district attorney by producing a hidden witness to the last interview between Keilher and Coleman at the former's house in Winthrop fast April.

In the early stages of the trial Coleman had testified that he was urged to go to Keilher's house after the bank crash by a Mrs. Laura Atwood or Arcrash by a Mrs. Laura Atwood or Ar-nold of New York. Coleman testified that Keilher wanted to settle the case and offered from $5,000 to $100,000 for Colemans' silence. The government did not produce Mrs. Atwood, but the de-
